

Total Pamper
Beauty & Holistic Therapy

Pamper Parties

Terms and Conditions

- All consultation forms and any other relevant paperwork MUST be returned at least seven days prior to the party date in order that we may arrange any adaptations to the treatments as required
- Inclusions may vary due to availability
- Non disposable items remain the property of Total Pamper
- Requested deposits required at the time of booking and the remainder to be paid to the therapist(s) on the night in cash (we do not accept cheques)
- Five days notice required to cancel in order to receive a full refund
- The Pamper Parties are priced with the number of guests considered at the time of booking, any less guests and the party price must remain the same
- Total Pamper therapists may refuse treatments to any client deemed to be behaving inappropriately or under the influence of drugs or alcohol, with no refund
- Total Pamper insurers are unable to offer cover for the use of the chocolate fountain, as this falls outside of the policy remit. You are advised that the chocolate fountain is provided at your own risk and to check if this is covered under your home insurance before accepting receipt of the chocolate fountain. Please advise Total Pamper beforehand if you wish to omit the chocolate fountain from the pamper party
- Total Pamper therapists require a smoke free environment to provide the maximum benefits
- It is advised that in order to gain maximum time, relaxation and effective results, children under 16 and pets do not enter the party
- Due care and consideration must be taken with the Total Pamper equipment, all damages must be accounted for
- Total Pamper therapists are not responsible for any allergic reactions if consent has been given for the respective treatment or allergies were not declared

